The 12:35-1:30 Istation/SuccessMaker block can be completed later in the day if the student needs a break away from the computer. The Istation/SuccessMaker and Independent Practice, Small Group Instruction Blocks can also be used by the classroom teacher, EC teacher, AIG teacher or other teachers/tutors to provide small group and individual assistance to students who need it. Any Synchronous learning that takes place after 12:30 must be coordinated between the teacher and parent.

Synchronous learning is learning that takes place in real time. This means that the students and teacher interact directly through the computer at a specific time.

Asynchronous learning happens when the student is working on or completing assignments on their own without direct teacher interaction. Asynchronous learning may include online assignments, videos, independent student work, etc.
